THE PUBLIC DEBT.

During November and December the public debt has increased nearly five millions of dollars, and the silence of the Republican party press about it is painful. The debt was paid in about 185 years by paying at the rate paid by Sherman last year. The revenue receipts have been very large, but with the Democratic economy, of which the Republicans have grown so much, that party has managed to spend all it could lay its hands on.—Madison Democrat.

The debt was increased $4,500,000 for the two months. This is not unusual for the period of the year. The debt has been decreased since June 30, over 7 millions of dollars. The increase for the month of December, is apparent though not real. The public debt proper, has not been enlarged but the expenditures of the Government for the months of November and December have been in excess of the receipts. It must be borne in mind that the Halifax award has been paid which took $5,500,000 from the treasury, from which it could not recover during the month. The public debt has been decreased over 17 millions of dollars during the year 1878, and beside that there is more coin in the treasury by 90 millions than there was a year ago. The decrease in the debt for 1878 may be considered small, but it is owing to the fact that Secretary Sherman was compelled to sell $50,000,000 of 4½ per cent bonds to get gold for redemption purposes, but as an offset to these bonds sold, he has 90 millions more of coin, and by the transaction has saved annually interest to the amount of $2,500,000. The Democrat may belittle itself by sneering at the Republican financial scheme, but that scheme and it alone, has locked the doors of the gold room in New York, has wiped out the premium on gold, and has resumed specie payments, and no thanks to the Madison Democrat or its party. The Democrat pretends to be a defender of honest money and redemption, but it is no better in principle than a wolf in sheep's clothing. It professes one thing, but cowardly practices another. It pretends to oppose all inflation, all depreciation of the currency, and any postponement of redemption. The Republican party has defended and maintained this policy for years, while the Democratic party opposed it, and the Democrat, to show its partisanship, hurls a dart of malice and hate at the Republicans for bringing about that state of financial affairs which it professes to admire so much.

THE ILLINOIS SENATORSHIP.

The Senatorial contest in Illinois, like that in Wisconsin, is waxing warm and attracting much attention. There is a deep interest taken in the matter by newspapers and public men in other States. The prominence of the candidates attaches to the contest an interest which is felt in all parts of the Union. The name of the gallant Logan being connected with the Senatorial struggle in Illinois arouses an interest which is keen and irresistible. Governor Oglesby, who is finishing his first term of six years, is also a candidate for re-election. Among the sterling and hard-working Republicans of the State there is a great majority who desire the re-election of General Logan. They give Mr. Oglesby credit of being an honorable, quiet gentleman, a faithful Senator, a man of pure character, and an unflinching Republican, but they claim that the best interests of the State, in fact the best interest of the nation, demands that there shall represent the State of Illinois in the United States Senate, a man of more brilliant powers, of more unflinching nerve, of more eminent statesmanship, of more force of will, of more personal influence,—a man who is not afraid to stand upon the floor of the Senate Chamber—Blaine-like—and measure political swords with the ablest of the Opposition. For this reason, a majority of the Legislature of that State, will support General Logan. They regard him the safest man, when it is considered that the Republican party must contend with the daring and revolutionary spirit of the Confederates. He has already served six years in the Senate, and while there proved himself to be one of the leading members of that body. He not only possesses dauntless courage, great energy of character, a spirit that can not be cowed, and an influence that can not be destroyed, but in his manner of public speaking he is brilliant and eloquent. His record as a soldier challenges the admiration of his party. From a private he rose to be a Major-General. Though unskilled in the science of war, he was the most successful, brave, and daring civilian general who fought in the Rebellion. His achievements on the field of many a battle, and his industry and influence in Congress, are the pride of his party. Governor Oglesby is a man of many noble qualities, and throughout his State he is held in high esteem, but he lacks that energy, industry, and power to make him distinguished and influential as a Senator. Judge Davis is an independent cipher, and therefore does not represent the State or a party with any special ability. The election of Logan would add ability to the Senate and increase the power of the State in Congress. It is very certain that General Logan will receive a majority of the Republican votes in the caucus, and in that case he should unite the entire strength of the party in the Legislature. The Republicans made a mistake four years ago when a few belittled the nomination of Mr. Carpenter, because it was unjust to him and unjust to the party, and Illinois should profit by the lesson.

JANESVILLE, WISCONSIN, SATURDAY, JANUARY 4, 1879.

NUMBER 255

THE WORK OF DEATH.

In 1878 four prominent statesmen and authors of this country were taken away—Benjamin F. Wade, Gideon Welles, William Cullen Bryant, and Bayard Taylor. Hardly had the New Year started on its course, before it began the work of death. Caleb Cushing, the eminent jurist, statesman and author, was the first prominent man of the United States to fall. Seventy-nine years ago this month Mr. Cushing was born in Salisbury, Massachusetts. He graduated at Harvard, studied law, and became a successful practitioner. He served in the Massachusetts Legislature, and from 1835 to 1843, he was a member of Congress. In 1843 he was appointed envoy to China by President Tyler. He was a Brigadier General in the Mexican war, and during Pierce's administration was Attorney-General of the United States. In 1869 he was President of the National Democratic Convention which met at Charleston. In 1874 he received the appointment of Minister Plenipotentiary to Spain, and in 1873 was nominated for Chief Justice of the United States, but on account of the nomination giving offense to some prominent politicians, it was withdrawn. In commenting upon his death the Evening Wisconsin says: "The career of Cushing should be impressed upon the young men of the nation. As a learned jurist he was equal to the first in the country; as an orator few were more eloquent; as an individual few persons were more attractive. Yet, when in the zenith of his power, he never fully enjoyed the confidence of the people, because he was regarded as a man of no sincere convictions; he was ready to serve any party or any principle which would advance his personal interests; in brief, he was a man of low moral nature, and, therefore, the heart of the people never clung to the able and fascinating Cushing."

The fact that Fred. Grant is going to Europe to travel with his father, is worrying the Democratic mind considerably and it furnishes additional food for Democratic reflection on Republican extravagance. That an officer should go to Europe under full pay is not strange. Every officer is entitled to one month's leave out of twelve, which is made accumulative for five years. Under this provision of the law, and none other, does Fred go to Europe.

Governor Smith tendered the appointment of Judge of the Tenth Judicial Circuit to George G. Greene, of Green Bay, but having no taste for office he declined the honor. Happy man—don't want an office.

The sub-treasury at New York is accumulating more gold than it needs. The people want greenbacks, and instead of exchanging them for gold, it is vice versa.

The Legislature of Wisconsin meets on Wednesday next at noon. The first ballot for United States Senator will take place on the 21st of January.

A struggle in La Crosse named Runkle, has opened the New Year by failing. That man is bent on making money.

One Democrat Who Sees the Point. From the Peoria National Democrat (Dem.).

We think it high time for Democratic papers everywhere, especially in the North, to "dry up" about the "bloody shirt" and "Southern outrages." The sneaking, cowardly murder of White and Clark, two colored witnesses on their way to New Orleans to testify, under subpoena of the United States Grand Jury, is an "outrage," that cannot be excused, palliated, patched up, nor defended by any honest white man, and the sooner Blaine and his whole committee, and the Federal army, the better for the peace of the country. If these Southern devils think that the Northern Democracy are going to back them up in all and any sort of diabolism they may perpetrate, they are very much mistaken. They have cursed the Northern Democracy long enough and often enough by their human barbarism, and if they want any further support from Northern Democrats, they must act like civilized white men, and not like demonic savages. The country has had exactly enough of that sort of conduct, and no more will be tolerated. Let us hear no more about the bloody shirt or Southern outrages in a single Northern Democratic paper. These Southern devils have made their bed; let them lie in it.

The Average Democratic Mind. New York Tribune (Republican).

The average Democratic mind is as slow in acquiring wisdom as a mule is in acquiring the small sweet courtesies of life. After all the party's melancholy experience with Blaine, the Democratic editors are announcing that he has been caught napping on this Southern investigation, and will be made ridiculous by demands for evidence of his assertions. They are convinced with delight at the fun they are going to have when they get him into a corner. The merriest strikes the experienced observer as premature. Mr. Blaine is the hardest man in America to get in a corner. He could be a good deal less able to defend himself than he really is, and yet have no trouble in finding an abundance of proof of all he charged. South Carolina has plenty of witnesses who will put the tissue-ballet question before the country in so strong a light that everybody will see what a stupendous outrage it was. There is an ex-Confederate in Mississippi, who ran for Congress as an Independent candidate, and was generously bulldozed for his presumption, who is ready to give his experience; and there is another ex-Confederate in Arkansas who has a similar story to tell.

The Maine papers are jubilating over the fact that on October 30, "in the presence of Governor Connor, the Maine Beet Sugar Company of Portland, turned out over twelve thousand pounds of beet sugar, the first ever made in the United States from beets grown in America." That jubilation hadn't a good foundation.

THE CABINET.

WASHINGTON, Jan. 3.—At the meeting of the Cabinet to-day (the members) were much pleased with the incidents connected with resumption narrated by Assistant Secretary of the Treasury Hawley. The President expressed his satisfaction with the result, and predicted a more general return of prosperity to the country. The question of refunding the national debt was discussed, as the present principal financial aim of the Treasury. The large subscription to the four per cent bonds was considered a good indication of success.

A TISSUE OF FRAUD.

How Glorious Democratic Victories are Gained in South Carolina.

WASHINGTON, Jan. 3.—The notice of the contest of Col. Mackey, the unsuccessful candidate for Congress from Charleston, South Carolina, has arrived here. It contains forty-eight distinct accusations of fraud. The statement is of the most striking character, and the names of witnesses are given to sustain the charges. The excess of ballots found in some of the boxes over the number of the names on the poll lists in Charleston county, outside of the city, were as follows, this excess being caused by the stuffing of the boxes with tissue ballots. In many cases the excess was made to disappear by the fraudulent addition of names to the poll lists.

Mount Pleasant, 543 excess; 350 Republican ballots drawn out, causing a loss to the Republicans of 700 majority.

Thirty-two-Mile House, 341 excess; 338 Republican ballots drawn out; loss to Republicans, 673 majority.

St. Stephen's Depot, 100 excess; 80 Republican ballots drawn out; loss to Republicans, 100.

Cooper's store, 115 excess; 88 Republican ballots drawn out; Republican loss, 176.

Twenty-two-Mile House, 230 excess; 161 Republican ballots drawn out; Republican loss, 322.

And so Colonel Mackey goes through the county specifying the number of Democratic tissue ballots found in each box, and the number of Republican ballots drawn out, making a more startling exposure of fraud even than that contained in his letter written just after the election.

OBITUARY.

Death of Hon. J. B. Smith, an Old and Prominent Citizen of Milwaukee.
MILWAUKEE, Jan. 3.—J. B. Smith, an old and well-known resident of Milwaukee, died this morning, at the advanced age of 67 years. Mr. Smith was born in Maine, 1811. In 1843 he came to this city and engaged in the lumber business with Lawrence McVickar. Was elected to the Legislature about the year 1848, and created great excitement throughout the State by introducing an Anti-Liquor law. Was chosen President of the Milwaukee & Horicon Railroad, and acted in that capacity until the failure of the scheme. Was appointed Assessor of Internal Revenue under President Johnson, and served as President of the Union League of the State of Wisconsin during the war. He was also at one time publisher of the Free Democrat, a daily paper of Free-Soil proclivities established by S. M. Booth. Deceased was a man of good ability, but rather eccentric character. In fact, eccentricity marked the closing years of his life to such an extent as to make a subject of general remark. He leaves an aged wife and two grown up sons and daughters.

A PIONEER GONE.

FOND DU LAC, Jan. 3.—At half-past 8 o'clock last evening, Maj. Wm. R. Tallmadge died at his residence in the town of Calumet, this county. The Major was a pioneer in Wisconsin and a successful one. He leaves an estate of considerable value. City Clerk Delany is a grand nephew. At a late hour to-night the particular details of the Major's last hours have not reached this city. The regret over his demise is general.

A BIG DIVIDEND.

INDIANAPOLIS, Ind., Jan. 3.—The Hecla Mining Company, composed of prominent residents of this city, among them Governor Hendricks, will divide $300,000 as the net result of last year's work. The gross receipts were $500,000, equal to the capital stock.

Not a Praying Man.

A man went hunting in the Nevada mountains, armed with a rifle, a hatchet, and a long bow-knife. As he reached a clearing he espied a huge grizzly bear, and at the same moment the huge grizzly bear espied him. Nothing daunted the man discharged his rifle, but missed the bear. Somewhat excited, he threw the hatchet, and again missed the bear. At this point he made up his mind that, with nothing but his knife left, he needed some assistance, and he determined to ask for it. Now he was not a praying man, and was not familiar with the usual forms of petition, but the emergency was great, and, with no thought of profanity, he drew the bow-knife and ejaculated: "Oh Lord! If you are on my side in this business I expect you to see me well out of it. If you are on the side of the bear you must draw it as mild as you can, and possible, dull his claws a little. But if you have no preferences either way, just stand out on one side and you'll see the cussedest bear fight that ever came off in the Nevada mountains."—New York Tribune.

The Indian and the Lawyer.

In the city of Halifax there dwelt a lawyer, crafty, subtle as a fox. An Indian of the Miami tribe, named Simon, owed him some money. The lawyer had waited long. His patience at last gave out, and he threatened the Indian with lawsuit, process, and executions. The poor red man got scared, and brought the money to his creditor. The Indian waited, expecting the lawyer would write a receipt. "Wait a moment, you waiting for," said the Indian. "A receipt," said the lawyer, "a receipt? what do you know about a receipt? Can you understand the nature of a receipt? Tell me the use of one and I will give it to you." The Indian looked at him a moment, and then said: "S'pose maybe me die; me go to heben; me die the gate locked; me see 'Postle Peter; he say, 'Simon, what you want?' me say, 'Want to get in?' he say, 'You pay Mr. J. deat money?' What me say? Me hab no receipt; have to hunt all over hell to find you?" He got his receipt.

Burying a Chinese Mason.

From the Virginia City (Nev.) Enterprise.
There was a Chinese funeral in this city yesterday afternoon, the dead man having been a member of the order as it exists in China. An American brass band headed the procession, which was composed of Chinamen wearing badges and other decorations denoting their rank, and in a large hearse were seated a number of women musicians—a Chinese band. The instruments were fiddles, guitars, drums, cymbals and gongs. Behind the native band was a wagon loaded with roset pig and other good things eatable and drinkable, to be left at the grave. Strips of paper pierced in three places with crescent shaped holes in rows of five were strewn by thousands along the whole route of the procession.

Hosts of People are Martyrs.

To sick headache, that infallible symptom of a disordered stomach, liver and bowels. Many suffer from it as many as three or four times a week. They do so needlessly, for Hostetter's Stomach Bitters, by toning the digestive organs and regulating the bowels and liver, removes the cause, and dispels the painful symptom. The intimate sympathy between the brain and the abdominal region causes the slightest disorder affecting the latter to be reflected, as it were, in the organ of thought. The reform instituted by the Bitters when the digestive, secretory and evacuating functions are in a state of chaos, has other and more beneficial results, viz, the complete nutrition of the whole physical economy, the restoration of appetite and repose, and an increase in the power of the system to resist diseases of a malarial type.

Since doing so, it has proved so satisfactory in restoring and beautifying my hair, as well as strengthening my eyesight, that I have recommended it to the druggists here in Oxford, Raleigh, and a great many of my friends, and believe I have from what others say, caused it to have a wide and extended sale, and deservedly so, as it certainly is the most cleanly and effective hair restorer now before the American people. The 'London Hair Color Restorer' can be obtained at all the leading druggists at 75 cents a bottle, or $4 for six bottles. j30dcedwlv-4

H. A. PATTERSON, P. M.

Zachary Taylor.

President Taylor was probably the only President to whom the presidency was an unthought and unsought-for boon. Mrs. Taylor was so averse to public life that it was said she prayed every night during his candidacy for his defeat, and when told of his election said: "Why could they not let me alone?" "We are so happy here. Why do they want to drag us to Washington? Who that ever saw Gen. Taylor at a levee could forget him? He grasped every new comer cordially by the hand and saluted all high and low, old maids, brides, young girls, with the remark: "Glad to see you. Glad to see you. How is your family? Hope the children are all well?" His greeting was almost equal to Rip's toast: "Here's to you and your family, may you live long and prosper." He hardly ever opened his mouth without making a mistake, and people laughed heartily. But they loved him, trusted him, judged him as he was, and he was as true as steel, and when he died the whole nation was a mourner at his grave.

When Major D. returned from Europe he introduced him at a dinner party as "My friend D., just from Berlin, Austria."

During his candidacy Col. W., state elector of the party, after discussing general public topics, asked him what were his views on the tariff. "The what, Jack," said Gen. Taylor, who stuttered dreadfully. "The tariff, General," said Col. W. "Why, what's that?" "It's a sine qua non," said Col. W., who was one of the greatest wits that ever lived. "That's the point, General," said Col. W., "I believe Jack, I saw one in Mexico, but I forget what it looked like, and I'll be blamed if I have any views on the tariff."

An American Lady Sees the Pope.

Correspondence Philadelphia Telegraph: We were quite a large and brilliant party. The ladies were required to dress in black, without gloves, and wear black lace veils at Espagnole. Arriving at the Vatican at noon, we were ushered into the audience chamber by one of the attendants dressed in scarlet silk brocade livery; at about 4:00 visitors were present of all religions, many Catholics who had come from long distances, others only curious to witness the solemn and imposing ceremonies. After waiting perhaps an hour, during which time, women-like, we had thoroughly canvassed and criticised the audience, just as they were no doubt doing with us, Leo XIII arrived accompanied by two Cardinals, but without any other pomp or display. Removing his hat and scarlet cape (paradise if I do not speak technically), he appeared in a pure white robe, wearing a sash of moiré antique ribbon and scarlet slippers embroidered with gold. The visitors sat in rows around the audience chamber, and accompanied by one of his Cardinals, his Holiness, after paying every person presented to him by name by the Cardinal, blessed each individual, all kneeling. Christians of all denominations kissed his hand, while the Catholics also kissed his ring and foot; many of those present brought rosaries also to receive the Pope's blessing. It was really a most impressive occasion: the Pope seemed most happy, happy and affectionate, and at the conclusion of his long ceremony, which lasted an hour and a half, he pronounced a general benediction from the Pontifical chair, and the audience dispersed.

Brother Cook Challenged.

Springfield Republican: The Rev. Joseph Cook, in one of his recent lectures, having used the following language: "Forbes Winslow once said that he could dip out of the brain of any habitual drunkard a fluid so full of alcohol that when put into a spoon and a lamp placed beneath it, the liquid would burn with a blue flame." A. J. Ballou, of Boston, offers to wager $1,000 that Winslow never said or wrote any such thing. The condition of the proposed wager is that Mr. Cook shall pay $1,000 to any charitable institution.

which Ballou shall name if he is unable to prove his assertion, while Ballou agrees to do likewise if he is wrong.

Candidates for President and Vice-President.

From the American Protestant.
For President, U. S. Grant, of Illinois.
For Vice President, Richard W. Thompson of Indiana.

For President, Theodore Randolph, of New Jersey. For Vice President, William Gaston, of Massachusetts.

For President, B. F. Butler, of Massachusetts. For Vice President, William D. Kelly, of Pennsylvania.

Ex-President Grant will be the candidate of the Republican. He will have as his associate on the ticket one of the most popular men in Indiana.

Senator Theodore Randolph, the popular ex-Governor of New Jersey, is one of the safest public men in the Democratic party, and will be their standard-bearer. The ticket for Vice-President this time will be a steadfast man from Massachusetts.

Gen. Butler will champion the cause of the Greenback party, and the Vice President of the same party will be taken from Pennsylvania.

The secret American organizations will take an important part in the selection of the next President, and will either select one from the other parties, pledged to their principles, or nominate a candidate of their own.

Head, nerves, kidneys, bladder, womb, and blood affections of the urinary organs, gonorrhea, rheumatism, catarrh, asthma, bronchitis, dyspepsia, etc.

Dr. Price's reputation has been acquired by practice, honest dealing and years of successful practice.

My practice is not one of experiment, but founded on the laws of Nature, with years of experience and evidence to sustain it, does not tear down, make sick to make well; no harsh treatment, no trilling, no flattery. We know the cause, and the remedy needed; no guess work, but knowledge gained by years of experience in the treatment of Chronic diseases exclusively; no encouragement without a prospect. Candid in our opinions, reasonable in our claims, not to know everything, or cure everybody, but to do claim to reason and common sense. We invite the sick, no matter what their ailment, to call and investigate before they abandon hope, make interrogations and decide for themselves; it will cost nothing as consultation is free. Visit me regularly.

BRIEFLETS.

—Still cool.
—The soda fountains look lonesome.
—To-morrow is the first Sunday of the new year.

—Not much talk now—a days about water-works. The question is not dead, but sleep.

—Herbert Kimball is rapidly recovering, and it is hoped that ere long he will be fully restored to health.

—L. W. Coe, and others, of Milwaukee, will be in the city this evening to organize the Endowment Rank of the Knights of Pythias.

—Jack Warburton, the reformed drunkard, will speak at Lappin's hall to-morrow afternoon at 3 o'clock. He is always gladly listened to.

—Mrs. Hunt's school opens next Monday. Her acknowledged ability as a teacher is causing her school to be well attended each term.

—District Deputy S. B. Kenyon, of this city, will conduct the installation exercises of the newly elected officers of the Odd Fellows lodge, in Edgerton, this evening.

—There will be spiritual manifestations at the Opera House to-morrow evening. Many of the tests as advertised are the same which W. Irving Bishop explained so fully when he gave his exhibition here.

—The Rock County District Division Sons of Temperance will be held in Milton Junction January, 8 and 9. Rev. E. L. Eaton will lecture Wednesday evening, and there will be a platform meeting Thursday evening.

—Jack Warburton, the Reformed Hatter, of Milwaukee, will talk and sing to-morrow afternoon. Let everybody come and hear Jack. It will pay. A collection will be taken up for pay expenses.

—The entire police force of the city is to be uniformed, M. C. Smith & Son having received the contract, and to-day they put the finishing touches upon the work. To-morrow, therefore, we may expect to see Keating come forth with his brand new suit.

—J. O. Fowler, the general manager of the Automatic Metropolitan Telegraph, informs us that this new invention for giving fire and burglar alarms will soon be exhibited in this city. It is the "Dreadnaught Fire and Burglar Detector," in inventing which Rev. H. Stone Richardson, of this city, spent much time and study, and combined with this is a District Alarm Telegraph Service.

—In M. C. Smith & Son's advertisement in last evening's Gazette the types got tumbled about so that they read, "100 overcoats ranging in price from $2 to $250." Smith & Son say they only advertise the truth, and the truth is their overcoats range from $2.50 to $3.50. They have a big stock of them from which to choose, as well as a great variety of other clothing, which they sell equally cheap.

—The county officials take re-possession of their offices next Monday. On that day Sheriff Colley will step down and Sheriff Comstock will step up. Sheriff Colley has proved a most faithful and efficient officer, and his record is one which reflects great credit upon him. The incoming Sheriff has ability, however, and this coupled with experience, will enable him to continue the faithful work carried on so successfully by his predecessor.

—Mr. E. F. Bliss, of Cincinnati, son of our venerable townsman, Mr. Cyrus Bliss, started for home to-day, having been in the city spending the holidays with his parents. Mr. Bliss is a graduate of Harvard College, and is now principle of a select school in Cincinnati, which he has taught for more than twelve years. His chief object is to prepare young men for college, and in this direction he has no superior as a teacher in this city.

—The annual concert of the Bower City Band, which is to be given at the Congregational church Tuesday evening, January 14, promises to be the best of all. Not only is the band in better shape than ever, but it has added to the attractions of the concert, Dr. C. T. Barnes, of Chicago, Mr. St. John, and his sister, Miss Izzie Gibbs, who will give vocal selections. Prof. Titcomb will serve as accompanist. Mr. S. Kent will be the concert soloist.

—Dr. C. T. Barnes has been engaged to sing at the Bower City Band concert, which will be given at the Congregational church, Tuesday evening January 14. Dr. Barnes is the leading tenor singer of Chicago, and is one of the finest to be found in the west. Many here will remember him, as he sang here at the time of the Richings-Barnard concert, and on other occasions. To hear him will be well worth the price of admission, to say nothing of the other attractions presented on the programme.

—A Janesville man who had been celebrating the holidays to such an extent as to bring him onto a bed of sickness, lay tossing on his couch the other night, a little delirious and very restless. Watching beside his bed sat a friend, whose tongue kept wagging incessantly, and whose mouth, of goodly size, scarcely closed for a minute. The sick man harked, cleared his throat, and in his delirium, coolly spat at the friend, succeeding in striking his mammoth mouth. Realizing for a minute what he had done the invalid brightened up, and apologized, with "Excuse me, Jim, do excuse me; I really thought your mouth was a spittoon." Jim kept his mouth shut for the rest of the night.

—On Monday, the 6th of January, the Catholic Church celebrates the festival of Epiphany. It is also called the festival of the Magi, whom the venerable Bede calls Ceyar, Melchior, and Baltasar, because the Church also commemorates the adoration and homage which the Magi paid to the newborn Messiah. It is one of the highest and oldest festivals of the Greek and Latin churches, having been observed already in the fourth century of the Christian era. There will be services on that day in both of the Catholic churches of this city. At St. Mary's Catholic church first mass will be at six o'clock, and high mass and sermon at 10 o'clock a. m. Ver-pers at 3 o'clock p. m., closing with benediction.

UNDER THE WHEELS.

A Son of A. B. Edwards Falls Beneath a Railroad Car, and Loses a Leg.

This afternoon Lanty Edwards, a fourteen year old son of Mr. A. B. Edwards, of the Edwards house, met with a serious accident, by which he will be crippled for life. He was at the depot, where he frequently goes at train time, and as Pete Rock's train started out for Milton, he jumped onto it to ride a few rods. By some chance one hand loosed its hold, and he whirled about and fell, and before he could recover himself the wheels passed over his left leg, cutting it in two close up to the knee. The poor boy was immediately picked up, and hurriedly carried to his home, and Dr. Palmer came quickly and attended to the injury. The boy's screams and moans were most piteous to hear, and excited the greatest sympathy among those who quickly gathered at the hotel on hearing of the sad accident. All that is within the range of human possibilities is being done to alleviate the sufferings of the boy, and the many friends of the family will sympathize with them deeply at this new affliction.

MRS. MACK'S CASE.

In the Mack murder case the Court gave the attorneys for the defense until yesterday afternoon at 3 o'clock to enter a motion for a new trial and to file their affidavits. That hour came and went and yet no attorneys appeared. Shortly after 3 o'clock Hon. J. R. Bennett moved that Mrs. Mack be brought before the Court and sentenced. Judge Couger suggested it would be advisable for Mr. Bennett to notify her attorneys that unless they moved in the matter at once, a motion to sentence would be made this morning. Mr. Bennett at once started to give personal notice to that effect, but met Attorney Wiggins and Fetters just going to the Court House. The defendant's attorneys entered the motion without further delay, and filed their affidavits. The ground on which they move a new trial is the claim that one of the jury-men, named Crow, had expressed an opinion against Mrs. Mack previous to his being chosen to serve on the jury. The prosecution will now have the task of preparing to rebut this charge. The day when the arguments will be heard is therefore not yet fixed upon, but it will be as early a date as possible, and will probably be next Tuesday.

THE GUARDS' NEW CLOTHES.

The Janesville Guards at their meeting last Thursday evening looked over the various bids on uniforms. There were bids from Columbus O., from Chicago, and from this city, and the Guards decided that the lowest and best was that of M. C. Smith & Son, of this city, and the contract was duly awarded to them. The uniforms are to be cadet gray, trimmed with light buff and with gold braid, and will present a very showy appearance. The new clothes are all to be furnished by the 22d of February, as on that day the Guards intend to make a street parade, and have an entertainment in the evening. The Guards have shown a commendable degree of enterprise, and have been the recipients of a liberal patronage on the part of the public so that there will be no financial embarrassment arising from the expenditure. The contract has fallen into good hands, and the friends of the Guards may expect to see them on Washington's birthday present as fine an appearance, both as regards uniforms and drill, as any company in the State.

AN EVENING WITH BRYANT.

The Court Street Church Literary Society spent last evening with William Cullen Bryant. The attendance was quite large in spite of the intense cold, and close attention was given to the papers which were read. The programme opened with a sketch of the author's life by Mr. Clarence Clark. It was carefully prepared and proved a brilliant opening for the exercises which followed. Miss Helen Blinn read "Thanatopsis." Mrs. Dr. Loomis read a well-written paper on Bryant's style, rank and forte as a poet. Mr. H. S. Hoggboom read an interesting sketch of Mr. Bryant's connection with the New York Evening Post. Miss Fannie Ray recited "The Two Travelers," in a very pleasing manner. A paper was also read on Dr. Thomas Young, "the most accomplished scholar, the most learned man, and the most illustrious philosopher of any age or nation." The next study of the society will be "Bayard Taylor."

A HEAVY SENTENCE.

The orator of a Janesville debating society, in discussing the evils and benefits of tobacco, said: "It minimizes the annoyances of daily life and exhilarates in times of depression, and calms in seasons of excitement; it quiets the normal ecstasies of calidity, and modifies the asperities of conubial incompatibilities." The above paragraph has been going the rounds, appearing in the Chicago Times, Milwaukee News, Peck's Sun, and other papers. The sentence which has caused such general comment was not the invention of any "orator of a Janesville debating society," but was facetiously framed by Stanley B. Smith, as a bit of spice to enliven a carefully prepared and well written paper read before the Round Table, a report of which was given in the Gazette at the time.

FUNERAL OF MRS. HOWELL.

The funeral services of Mrs. Howell were held this afternoon at the residence and were conducted by Rev. Mr. Chapell, the pastor of the Baptist church. The songs "I would not live always," and "Watching and Waiting" were sung very tenderly and sweetly by a quartet consisting of Mrs. C. B. Conrad, Miss Dollie Patten, Mr. D. D. Bennett, and Mr. Charles E. Church. A number of sympathizing friends joined with the bereaved relatives in paying their tribute of love and respect to her whose justly merited it. Mr. George Hedges, the son-in-law of the deceased, arrived from New York on this afternoon's train in time to be present at the services.

SIGNAL SERVICE REPORTS.

Charles A. Potter, the agent of the Chicago & Northwestern Railway, has received notice from General Manager Hughitt that arrangements have been made by which the daily reports of the weather as furnished by the Signal Service at Washington, will be telegraphed here at 1 o'clock every morning. These reports will be posted onto a bulletin board which will be hung in a conspicuous place in the depot, which the public may consult at leisure. This new plan of keeping the public posted will be duly appreciated.

AN OLD TIMER.

Last night three tramps were run into jail. One of them was recognized quickly as a fellow named Whalen who has furnished more brief items for the papers here than any other one of the tramp family. A search through the records shows that during the past four years he has been locked up on different charges eighteen times, most of the offenses being drunkenness and vagrancy. He feels more at home here than anywhere else, and may be looked upon as almost a permanent inmate of the jail.

COURT STREET M. E. CHURCH.

The series of sermons began at Court Street Church last Sunday evening will be continued, and will include the following topics: "Our Words for 1879," "The Gifts and Demands of Society," "The Rational and Religious Ground for Amusements," "The Theatre as an Amusement and an Educator," "Shall the Church Support Dancing?" It is hoped to make these sermons suggestive to all. This series will be followed by another upon "Popular Evils."

THE WEATHER.

The thermometer at 7 o'clock this morning stood at 12 degrees below zero, and at 2 o'clock this afternoon at 1 degree above zero.
The indications to-day are, for the upper lake region, stationary followed by falling barometer, warmer, cloudy or hazy weather, and diminishing northwesterly winds.
